A compilation of good time rockin' blues with new, previously unreleased material.

When I was thirteen years old growing up in Fullerton, California, listening to a thing called FM radio, I would never have imagined that I'd someday play with the musicians on this CD.

Be it the right place, time, or fate, I got a dream-come-true chance to perform and record with the very people I had been listening to. So, be careful what you wish for because it took me on a 33 year long journey into the mystical, "Have Mercy!"

The only profound thing I have to say is:

"Boy did I have a good time."

Mahalo,

Mike Reilly, 2010
